

London, 14th May 2019

Dear Partners,

We are delighted to announce the expansion of Milexia group across UK and Ireland, following the acquisition of Sematron UK Ltd. on 14 May.

MILEXIA group is a major European Distribution Group specialising in the sale of High technology value added Components, Systems and instrumentation. Founded in 2006, following the merger of three, long established distributors, Milexia's team of over 90 highly skilled professionals supports business partners and manufacturers across Europe with offices and warehouses in France, Italy and Spain.

SEMATRON UK is a specialized distributor of RF & MW Components, Equipment and Systems with a strong presence in UK market. Since 1990 it is a recognized leader in the design, manufacturing and distribution of Satcom terminals & equipment as well as Timing Solutions for various markets including Defence, Aerospace, Telecommunications and Financial institutions.

"I'm very pleased about the agreement with Sematron and I'm confident that it will bring a number of benefits to our group" - said Pascal Gandolfini, Milexia President – "First of all, we'll expand our team with two valuable managers and friends, John O'Brien and Kevin Hall, they bring an extensive experience of more than 30 years in the Electronics industry. Of course, we'll also be able to extend the territories of our coverage in Europe and we'll introduce within the Milexia group an important technical capability to manufacture, test and service RF subsystems and timing solutions, in addition to the service capabilities we already have in the Scientific Instrumentation group"

"This is a very exciting time to be joining Milexia, one of the fastest growing distributors in Europe." - said John O'Brien, Sematron President - "Our Companies share a common DNA, believing in people and putting customers first. Whilst we have many product synergies, this is coupled with some exciting new technologies that we bring to the Milexia group."

If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact us: marketing@milexia.com.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your cooperation and we look forward to our continuously growing relationship.

Yours sincerely,

Pascal Gandolfini
President Milexia
